25 Pounds in 50 Days Goal Set by Men Here In Reducing Contest

DON GIBSON BALANCES (facing camera) the scales at 286 pounds for Robert Terhune (on scales). When they traded places, Gibson weighed 248 1/2 pounds. They have a bet that they will lose 25 pounds apiece in the next 50 days or do a tap dance in public. (Record-Herald photo)

If Robert Terhune and Don Gibson can't lose 25 pounds apiece before Feb. 22, they'll do a tap dance on the stage Feb. 26, when the Lions Club puts on its minstrel.

That's the bet they have made in their unusual contest.

Their ponderous weight considered, that might not seem like such a feat. But, neither is what could be called a "fat man", and even they admit that will make it tough.

Terhune is the bigger; he weighs a hefty 286 pounds.

Gibson tips the scales at a mere 248 1/2 pounds.

THEY WEIGHED in on the scales in the Record-Herald office—they had to go back to the commercial printing department to find scales that would hold them. And they agreed to weigh in each Wednesday from now until the deadline so the records can be kept straight.

The contest broke out spontaneously during a bit of kidding. But, both men are very serious about the whole thing now. They made it plain their weight-loss efforts were not being taken lightly. For one thing, they both consider it a matter of health—their own health—to cut down on some of their poundage, although both are healthy as well as rugged individuals.

They pack their weight on big frames; they are muscular and solid; there are no flabby "bay windows."

AND HOW do they expect to reduce by 25 pounds in 50 days?

First of all the whole procedure is to be under the strict supervision of a physician. Terhune and Gibson said emphatically "we'll take no medicine or drugs that will curb our appetites."

Diet is their only weapon against excess weight and will power their only ammunition.

The men are not kidding themselves; they know it's not going to be easy. For, both admittedly are right fair feeders.

Terhune, a farmer who spends a lot of time outdoors at hard work, said he knew he would get hungry. Gibson, manager of the Economy Loan Co. here, thinks his temptation will be the restaurants and soda fountains so easily accessible.

HERE WERE the menus for the first day:

Terhune—breakfast was sliced orange, soft boiled egg, half slice of dry toast and black coffee. Lunch was of bouillon (clear soup) half cup of cottage cheese, sliced tomato, fresh apple and cup of black coffee. Supper was the big meal with a small broiled hamburger steak, a green salad (a big one), black coffee and a tangerine for dessert.

Gibson—breakfast was half a grapefruit, slice of dry toast, tomato juice and black coffee. For lunch there was consommé (clear soup), slice of white cold turkey, bread with a "very small" piece of butter and tea. Supper brought a small slice of broiled ham a big salad of lettuce, carrots, apple and orange with plain vinegar dressing and black coffee.

There is plenty of variety for the menus, they said, but those for the starting day were described as "typical."

SALT AND PEPPER are taboo, no matter what the dish. And there is a limit of four glasses of water. These two were considered important.

For awhile, at the start, the diet is to be limited to 800 calories a day. The normal number for them is around 2,500 to 3,000. Later, the caloric total will be increased.

Dieting and reducing are not new to either Terhune or Gibson, but this friendly competition is, they agreed that the first 10 or 15 pounds would disappear without much trouble, but after that it won't be so easy.

Terhune carries his 286 pounds of brawn on a big 6 six, 1 1/2 inch frame. Gibson is an even 6 feet tall.

For age and height they should weigh, they said, between 190 and 200 pounds.

Deputy Is Caught In Raid on Vice

LIMA, Jan. 3.—An Allen County deputy sheriff, arrested during a raid on a reported house of ill repute, no longer is on the force.

Leroy Edward Boyd, 31, and four others were arrested by Lima city police. He pleaded innocent and posted $20 bond for trial April 2.

Boyd said he had resigned as a deputy sheriff. But Sheriff Ray Dailey said he never saw Boyd's resignation. "He's fired," the sheriff said.

Former State Auditor, Joseph T. Tracey, Dies

COLUMBUS, Jan. 3.—Joseph T. Tracey, 86, father of State Treasurer Roger W. Tracey, died Wednesday in his home in Westerville. The elder Tracey, Ohio's first four-term auditor of state, had been in ill health for some time.

Hospital Plans For Expansion Are Discussed

Preliminary Details
Considered First
At Special Meeting

Preliminary steps toward the building of the proposed new wing for Memorial Hospital were considered Wednesday night at a special meeting of the board of trustees.

The construction and equipment of the new wing, it was definitely stated, must come within the $125,000 voted as a bond issue by the electors of Fayette County at the last November election.

Bids for the bonds, now being advertised, are to be opened at the county auditor's office at noon on Jan. 11. The county bonds are being offered at not more than 2 1/2 percent interest, payable at a rate of $25,000 per year, plus interest, each December beginning in 1953, over a five year period. When the bonds are sold the entire amount will be immediately available for use in construction of the new hospital improvement.

Curtis Insko, the Columbus architect who designed and supervised the building of the present hospital, was the first architect called into a meeting by the board for discussion of the project. All members of the board were present together with a group of physicians representing the county Medical Society, Rev. Allan Caley representing the Ministerial Association and also a representative of the Record-Herald.

PRESIDENT WILLARD Bitzer of the board of trustees, explained that this first meeting was mainly to get information as to what should or what could be done and also what immediate steps must be taken as to plans.

He stated that the board as yet was not pledged by contract with any architect but that Insko had been asked in first for a general discussion.

Insko outlined, step by step, the necessary preliminary moves to final preparation of plans and a final contract for construction. He said that in approximately three weeks a preliminary over-all sketch could be made. When this is submitted, he stated, the board, the medical society, and any other interested individuals whom the board calls in, would then decide how the new wing should be divided as to space for rooms, service stations and other details.

AFTER A FINAL decision is made as to just what division of rooms are necessary to best meet the needs of the hospital situation, Insko said, it probably will require three months to prepare all the necessary working drawings to be ready to call for bids for construction. He explained that the importance of being exactly correct in technical details of plans for the addition, was of utmost importance, particularly in a hospital.

The general discussion as to what type of rooms and other facilities are required, continued for more than two hours.

President Bitzer said there was a general understanding that the new addition should provide a minimum of 20 beds. This was almost unanimously agreed to, because the demand for beds has necessitated placing some patients in the corridors at times. On some occasions it has been necessary for patients to go to other hospitals because of lack of room space here.

JUST HOW MANY rooms are to be provided to meet this situation, whether ward space is to be included, how many private rooms and other details brought forth many opinions. It was stressed, (Please turn to Page Two)

Rescuers Race New Atlantic Storm

Skipper Won't Abandon Helpless Ship

LONDON, Jan. 3.—Capt. Kurt Carlsen was cooped up Thursday in the cabin of his wallowing ghost ship while a new storm raging across the North Atlantic raised doubts that the damaged freighter could stay afloat until a salvage tug beats its way to the scene.

The fearless skipper, hailed by the British press as "Captain Enterprise," appeared more concerned about the suffering of his would-be rescuers than his own fate.

Carlsen, 37, who refuses to abandon his ship, the American Freighter Flying Enterprise, is existing on a slim diet of tea and "bits of dried food," he informed the commander of the U. S. Destroyer John W. Weeks, which is standing by.

"You fellows are taking a worse beating and are suffering more than I am," said the youthful skipper whose faithfulness to the tradition of the sea has stirred the imagination of millions.

THE AMERICAN destroyer radioed that "preparations have been made with Capt. Carlsen for rescue if required." It was the first indication that the doughty captain may not be able to stick out his lone, iron-man attempt to stay with the crewless ship. Its 10 passengers, one of them dead, and crew of 40 were taken off the ship last Friday and Saturday, but Carlsen refused to leave his vessel. An abandoned ship can be claimed by anyone.

W. L. Thompson of McKinney, Tex., commander of the Destroyer Weeks, radioed this description of the heroic one-man battle against the elements:

"Gale winds are sweeping the area, about 300 miles off the southern coast of England. The seas are kicking up ferociously. Carlsen stays on the starboard quarter of the Flying Enterprise, the only part of the deck he can safely reach."

For five nights the skipper kept this perilous vigil, rejecting all offers to remove him from the ship. At times the Enterprise lay at an angle of 80 degrees to the water—almost flat on her side.

Carlsen keeps in constant touch with the destroyer by radio-telephone. His one request was for hot coffee, meat sandwiches and magazines. Three attempts to deliver these items by messenger line failed.

WHEN A LINE is shot to him from the destroyer, his precarious position and the surging of the destroyer in the heavy sea prevents him from hauling the line.

At one time he had only three feet of line to go when it parted. Finally he returned to his radio in the deckhouse and said:

"Suggest we wait until weather abates. I don't need those items that badly. You fellows are taking a worse beating and suffering more than I am."

West Lashed By Blizzard

DENVER, Jan. 3.—Western states Thursday were crawling out from under the paralysis of a three day snowstorm and subzero spell that marooned motorists, tied up rail traffic and took three lives in Colorado.

Two are missing after the cab of a semi-trailer was swept off snow-packed Wolf Creek Pass in Southwestern Colorado in a snow slide. Rescuers Wednesday night used snow plows, sled and snowshoes to bite through eight-foot deep banks of snow and rescue 21 men marooned for more than five days in 10,000-foot Cumbres Pass on the Colorado-New Mexico border.

The men were reported in good shape. They included employees of the Denver and Rio Grande Western narrow gauge railroad way stations, crews of four trains stalled in the pass and rescuers who were isolated by the storm.

Eastern New Mexico, most of West Texas and the south plains area of Texas is locked in the grip of an ice storm. The cold and ice extends as far west as Central New Mexico.

$630,000 Was Bet In Ohio in Month

CLEVELAND, Jan. 3.—Upwards of $630,000 was bet during November with professional gamblers in 22 Northeastern Ohio counties.

The Internal Revenue office here revealed that in reporting it had collected $63,000 so far for that month from gamblers under a new federal tax.

There had been predictions the new tax would drive gamblers out of business.

The tax is for 10 per cent of the gross business of gamblers. It marks the first time professional gamblers have made monthly reports on their businesses.

The largest single tax paid so far was $16,663, according to Thomas H. Carey, Cleveland office tax collector. Another man had paid $7,000. He declined to name the men.

J. M. Willis Called by Death Former Legislator And Draft Chairman

J. Madison Willis, 82, former representative in the Ohio Legislature from Fayette County, and chairman of the Fayette County draft boards for both world wars, died at 10:40 P. M. Wednesday at his home in Bloomingburg.

Receiving his bachelor of science degree from Ohio State University in 1948, Glass started work as an associate county agent in Washington County (Marietta) and was employed there for two and half years before joining the U. S. Soil Conservation Service in March of 1951.

The new farm planner for this county arrived here Wednesday morning with Howard Andrus of Springfield, who is a soil scientist for six counties in this area.

Andrus took Glass around the city to meet people with whom he will have contact with during the time he is serving Fayette County.

Although he worked in southern Ohio since his graduation from Ohio State, Glass lived in Franklin County, near Columbus, for several years and was graduated from North High School in that city.

During World War II he served in the army in Texas, Missouri and Virginia for three and a half years. He was in the air force, combat engineers and quartermaster corps.

His wife, Helen, is from Madison County.

Glass will continue work, planning farms in this county at the U. S. Soil Conservation office, located in the building occupied by the Fayette County Production and Marketing Administration.

He hasn't found a place to live in this city yet.

Mr. Willis had been in failing health for the past nine years. He had been forced to resign as chairman of the county Selective Service board during the last World War, due to ill health.

Mr. Willis was a native of Fayette County and a member of one of its oldest pioneer families.

Most of his life was spent on his farm a mile north of Bloomingburg on the Sedalia Road. For some time he resided in Washington C. H., but later moved to Bloomingburg, where he spent the remainder of his life.

He spent much of his time looking after his extensive farming interests.

Mr. Willis was held in high regard by all who knew him and he (Please turn to Page Two)

$100,000 Lawsuit Facing McCarthy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—A $100,000 suit charging slander and breach of contract was filed against Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) here Wednesday by the man convicted by Swiss courts of political spying for the senator.

Charles E. Davis of Pasadena, Calif., said in his petition he made a verbal agreement with McCarthy Sept. 25, 1949, to get certain information about State Department employees in Europe.

He said he lived up to his part of the bargain until he was arrested last November, but that McCarthy had not.

Truman's Plan for Shakeup First Viewed with Suspicion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—President Truman's proposal for a "sweeping reorganization" of the scandal-stricken Internal Revenue Bureau is receiving a cautious reception in Capitol Hill.

In advance of the return of the main body of Congress members next Monday, lawmakers already in town were divided in their reaction.

Many senators preferred to reserve judgment until more information is available, but Sens. Dworshak (R-Ia.) and Welker (R-Ida.) pinned a "too-little-and-too-late" tag on the plan.

With government corruption charges already high on the Republican list of election-year issues, Mr. Truman made plain his move was but the first of a "series of actions to insure honesty, integrity and fairness" in Washington.

"In addition to the reorganization of the Bureau of Internal Revenue," he said, "I expect to take further administrative action and to make other recommendations to (Please turn to Page Two)

He replaced Melvin Helsel, who will be inducted into the U. S. Army Friday in Columbus.

Glass came here from McConnellsville, where he worked as a farm planner in training for six months. He also served as a farm planner in training at Caldwell. Glass received training at Coshocot for a month.

It Sounded Like Guadalcanal

Ammunition Is Set off By Fire after Trains Crash Near Hilliards

COLUMBUS, Jan. 3.—(INS)—More than 150 firemen battled four hours against white heat and exploding 20 millimeter shells before bringing under control early Thursday a fire resulting from a wreck of two freight trains at Hilliards, 10 miles northwest of here.

The fire broke out Wednesday night when eastbound and westbound freight trains derailed in what a trainmaster said was one of the most freakish accidents in railroad history.

The terrific heat touched off a car loaded with Army ammunition bound for Ft. Meade, Md. Shells exploded almost continuously in what an ex-GI said sounded "like Guadalcanal."

Fifty freight cars are piled up at the scene.

A nearby Farm Bureau grain elevator was almost completely destroyed by an internal explosion which firemen said was caused by an accumulation of grain dust.

A RAILROAD official said eight tank cars, loaded with oil, ammonia, naphtha and gasoline were in the center of the fire. He said he believed the gasoline car was the one which exploded.

Despite the terrific heat and bursting shells, no one was seriously injured. Four firemen were treated for minor cuts, some caused by flying shell fragments.

G. J. McCloskey, trainmaster of the Pennsylvania Columbus division, said cause of the accident was a large spool of steel cable on the 23rd car of the eastbound freight.

The cable broke through the floor of the car, struck the Diesel locomotive of the stationary westbound freight and rebounded against the moving train.

This threw the car off the track and the others in the 32-car eastbound train piled into it.

Twenty pieces of fire fighting equipment rushed to the scene from Franklin, Delaware and Madison Counties.

A fire official estimated that more than half a million gallons of water were poured on the gas-fed flames. The entire water supply of the village of Hilliards was drained.

PUMPS WERE placed in ditches and water from distant sources was poured into them.

The ammunition car was pulled from the scene, which was patrolled by more than 100 sheriff's deputies and state highway patrolmen.

Residents of nearby streets in Hilliards prepared to evacuate their homes at the height of the fire, fearing the tank cars might explode, but were dissuaded by firemen.

The 50 freight cars were piled up for a distance of about two city blocks but the fire was confined to a relatively short space.

Two Children Killed As Fire Levels Home

CLEVELAND, Jan. 3.—Two children died in their blazing upstairs apartment Wednesday while their mother was carrying her third child through the flames to safety.

The dead were Diane Moore, 2, and her brother, Gary Allen, 21 weeks. Mrs. Florence Moore, 21, staggered from the four-family frame apartment building with four-year-old Bobby in her arms.

Meanderings By Wash Fayette

Persons who desire acid soil for growing certain things, including evergreen trees, will find that pine needles from the Christmas tree is one quick way of placing acid in the soil.

Cut branches off and place them on the ground where acid soil is desired, and the acid from the needles will penetrate the soil as the needles decay.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 3.—Sh-h-h-h!

The Henry Thacker family is waiting for its spook to perform again.

He has sent a two-pound photograph album swirling through the air, floated a corn cob from the basement up to a ground-floor dining room, and sailed a ring box from one room to another.

These and other antics which began Sunday have attracted curious neighbors, one of whom said she had a painful encounter with the mystery.

Mrs. Robert Covington said she was standing near a dresser when a fingernail file struck her back with such force she felt a stinging sensation for several minutes.

A skeptical county patrolman, Russell McDaniel, waited six hours Wednesday for the galloping ghost to appear. He didn't—but McDaniel said a cardboard box almost hit him. The box came from the dresser, hit the ceiling, then flew toward the office.

His doubts somewhat shaken, McDaniel said he won't even consider the possibility of any superhuman power involved until he sees the flying objects leave their resting places.

So far, the only one reported to have seen an object actually take off is Walter Brown, 16-year-old student living with the Thackers. He said he watched Mr. Thacker's spectacles rise from a table unaided and jump about three feet into a chair.

After discussing it with his science class, the youngster advanced this theory—kinetic energy.

The Thackers have lived in the 23-year-old home more than a year. They feel there must be a reasonable explanation for all these goings-on. But what?

Hopes for Truce Given New Jolt By Soviet in UN

Shift of Negotiations
To Security Council
Proposed by Russia

MUNSAN, Jan. 3.—The Communists Thursday turned down an Allied plan for exchanging war prisoners and civilians as "no more than a barter of slaves."

But a UN negotiator said he "rejected the categorical rejection of the Reds."

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho said he wanted no part of the Allied plan because it was "simply and solely on a one-for-one exchange." The Reds want an all-for-all trade.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby said that was the end result of the Allied plan.

He refused to accept the Red rejection because they "either misunderstood our proposal or they are deliberately misinterpreting it in order to deliberately obscure the issues."

Libby reiterated that the UN plans to return every prisoner of war who wants to be repatriated. He said the one-for-one exchange called for in the first two points of the Allied plan would control merely the rate of exchange—not the number of war prisoners and civilians ultimately traded.

ANOTHER subcommittee, dealing with truce supervision, remained deadlocked Thursday over Communist insistence on the right to build and repair military airfields during an armistice.

Both subcommittees will return to Panmunjom at 4 p. m., EST, Thursday.

Under the Allies' plan offered Wednesday, prisoners of war would be exchanged on a man-for-man basis until all prisoners held by one side are turned back. Then the side still holding prisoners would trade them for civilians. When all prisoners were traded there would be a mass exchange of remaining civilians.

However, the Allies specified no one would be handed over against his will. The Red Cross would interview each one to make sure he wanted to be repatriated.

ALLIES OPEN ATTACK

SEOUL, Jan. 3.—Tank-supported Allied infantrymen attacked behind a thundering artillery barrage Thursday and recaptured two strong points on the Western front. The sudden outbreak of fighting in Korea was ordered to regain ground lost to a Chinese assault Dec. 28.

The Eighth Army said attacking infantrymen were heavily engaged for an hour. Then two Red groups retreated and abandoned the strong points to the Allies.

The action was west of Korango, just south of the 38th Parallel and about 10 miles northeast of the truce village of Panmunjom.

Three other small fights—all started by Red probes—were reported along the freezing 145 mile front. Two squad sized probes were tossed back on the Central Front and an attacking Red platoon was driven back after nearly two hours fighting in the early morning west of Heartbreak Ridge.

TRUCE HOPES JOLTED

PARIS, Jan. 3.—Soviet Russia has proposed that the United Nations Security Council intervene in the Korean armistice negotiations.

It asked that both Korea and the lessening of world tensions be considered at a high level, possibly by foreign ministers or chiefs of state.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky submitted the proposal to the 60-nation UN Political Committee after a long speech denouncing a Western collective action plan, and hinting ominously at events to come in Southeast Asia.

The American delegation immediately frowned on the Vishinsky proposal. Pending official comment, U. S. sources said the Soviet resolution was unacceptable.

Some observers said Vishinsky's move dashed Western diplomatic hopes of an early conclusion of an armistice in Korea.

It also was taken as a signal that the Soviet Union does not intend to induce the Peiping regime to move swiftly at the Panmunjom conference table.

HIS ACTION, on the contrary, was interpreted as serving notice to the United Nations either to accept Communist terms or to forget about an armistice.

A hasty perusal of Vishinsky's (Please turn to Page Two)

Truman's Plan

the Congress to insure complete integrity in the operations of the government."

MR. TRUMAN'S statement was followed quickly by the disclosure that 53 more Internal Revenue Bureau employees have been sacked or suspended since the last official announcement, which covered the first 10 months of last year.

This made the total for the year 166, compared with 40 in 1950 and 36 in 1949. Of the 1951 total, 20 are suspensions, still under investigation.

Congress members for the most part reacted to the President's reorganization plan with a "yes, but" attitude. Some said it didn't go far enough.

The President's plan, designed to "protect the government from the insidious influence peddlers and favor seekers"—will be sent to Congress under the government reorganization act. It would:

1. Abolish the offices of the 64 internal revenue collectors, substituting 25 "district commissioners" in their place.

2. Create an independent inspection service, streamline and centralize bureau administration, and provide for "more adequate salaries" for top administrative officials.

3. Take collectorships out of the "political plum" category and place the entire agency under civil service with the sole exception of the internal revenue commissioner

Bonds Forfeited By Three Drivers

Three traffic law violators who were arrested by the police and patrol over Wednesday, failed to appear in municipal court Thursday morning.

Police arrested Henry C. Short, 29, Carrie, Ky., for having improper automobile tags. He posted $50 bond.

Paul R. Meredith, of near Hillsboro, also arrested by the police, was charged with running a red light on Columbus Avenue at East-side School.

The state patrol arrested Robert E. Behrnes of Cincinnati, for crossing a yellow line on the CCC Highway, near the Cook Station crossroads. He posted $15 for his appearance.

Hospital-Discussion

however, that more private rooms, with full facilities, and a children's ward were needed. It was also argued that there was need for two bed rooms which could be converted to private rooms when necessary.

No decisions were reached but another meeting of the board of trustees and physicians will be held Monday evening. The whole subject will receive further consideration then.

At this next meeting it is probable that some action will be taken, pending some investigation meantime, as to employment of an architect.

Rev. Caley suggested that the plans include a small room that could be used for meditation and prayer, as a place where families of patients could meet with the ministers or a sanctuary for ambulatory patients.

Members of the hospital board are Bitzer, the president; George Campbell, secretary; Herbert Hopess and Marilyn Riley. The two new members who have been appointed to take their seats in March are Mrs. Fern Chaffin and Howard Boylan. They were at the meeting, too.

The Medical Society was represented by Dr. Hugh Payton, the chief of staff; Dr. Byers Shaw, the chief of staff-elect; Dr. Marvin Roszmans, the secretary, and Dr. J. H. Persinger, a past chief of staff.

He was a 50-year member of the Masonic Lodge in Bloomingburg, and a past worthy patron of the Eastern Star chapter in Washington C. H.

He served as Fayette County representative in the Ohio Legislature from 1902 to 1906, and left an enviable record in that office, as well as in all others he held.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Robert Jefferson of Bloomingburg, and Mrs. Thomas Parrett of Bloomingburg; two grandchildren, Mrs. Stephen Mavis of Washington D. C. and one great-grandchild. He also leaves one sister.

Children's Home Finances Aired

The Board of Fayette County Commissioners and the board of trustees of the county children's home held a joint meeting today (Thursday) at the Court House to discuss the financial picture of the institution.

Consideration of the county's financial condition in its bearing on the appropriation which must be made in 1952 for the maintenance of the Fayette County Children's Home was the principal topic of the joint meeting.

The two boards also considered all angles of the $85,300 budget, which the trustees were seeking this year.

THIS BUDGET carries a proposed $20,000 program of improvements at the home, in addition to the $7,000, which had been spent during the past year out of the children's home regular budget for necessary repairs.

The 113 children, wards of the county who are under the custody of the county institution, are at present divided between foster homes and the county home.

Whether any change could be made in this program, or whether the county home can be changed to care for more children was one of the questions being discussed.

ter, Mrs. Elsie Hopkins of Washington C. H. His wife died a number of years ago.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 P. M. at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home here, with Rev. Harold Braden, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in charge.

Interment will be in the family lot in Bloomingburg cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 P. M. Thursday.

portant factor in the UN efforts for peace.
They said the call for a Security Council meeting has been made before without response from the Russians, who would not recognize Nationalist China as a member of the council.
The Americans said that since the Soviets have veto power in the council, it would be useless to bring the Korean armistice negotiations to that body, adding that the place for successful conclusion of such talks is in Korea, with the veto-free General Assembly deciding later on a political settlement.

Grain Market
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—After an early dip which carried some grains to new lows on the decline that started about three weeks ago, prices firmed on the Board of Trade Thursday. Soybeans and oats particularly attracted buying attention.
Corn was something of a lag-garden. Selling pressure increased on news the corn-hog ratio here had sunk further to 9.0, which compares with 11.6 a year ago and is considered unfavorable for feeding corn on farms. However, losses were wiped out and gains substituted late in the day.

Wheat had a mixed appearance, circling around the previous close. In general, the 1952 crop contracts showed a better undertone than the nearby 1951 crop months.

A Year of Important Decisions Faces Us

Every individual in this city and county will have a very important stake, directly or indirectly, in what transpires when the 82nd Congress convenes early this month.

Matters which will come close to every citizen of every community, probably will claim the attention of Congress which can act as a check on proposed new administration actions, especially with reference to greater and greater expenditures, or can follow the lines of least resistance and let things ride.

Will we come closer to a new world war or will we find some approach to peace?

Observers at Washington, D. C., say our government is wary and deeply concerned over prospects of the next 12 months. Some of this fear is prompted by partisan political considerations.

It is taken for granted by most people that the Truman administration must have something new and outstanding in seizing attention, if it is to have a chance for another victory, either for Truman, or some candidate whom he will select in 1952.

War and the alarms of war, have been used repeatedly to advantage and may again be part of the planning of the Truman chieftains in this important time of decision.

This problem becomes all the more pointed in the light of what is happening abroad. Winston Churchill in England, with his own national victory behind him, is playing down the danger of war. His European army, his insistence that there is less danger of war now than there has been at any time since 1943 during the struggle over the Berlin blockade and our air lift, are evidence of a new viewpoint which is prevalent in important parts of Europe.

It is certain that this conflict in outlook will play a large role in such discussions as the proposed Universal Military Training measure, the extension of further aid to Europe, and inflationary trends at home. The 1950's started on a note of anxiety. 1952 is not likely to see that anxiety diminished.

Congress May Protest

Another important area of disagreement between President Truman and Congress is developing if press reports of Mr. Truman's tax intentions are factual. According to dispatches the president will press for considerably higher taxes in the new session of Congress.

Senator Walter George of Georgia, leading Democratic fiscal expert, has announced he has supported the last tax increase, short of war. His sentiment is echoed by a great number of members of Congress.

These legislators are convinced taxes have taken all the cream and are dipping into some of the skimmed milk. Further levies would be harmful by lessening incentive, they hold.

Airplane under construction will be able to circle the globe three times without stopping. But wouldn't that bore the passengers?

A scientist says the world will last another billion years. If so, the U. S. may yet have a chance to pay its debt and balance the budget.

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Drug addiction has been much in the news the last few months. Reports of school-age children in danger of becoming addicts should make everyone recognize the great danger to society from this habit.

There is need for more people to learn the underlying causes of this serious disorder and also the ways to cure it.

Underlying Reason

Why do people become addicts? The underlying reason almost always has to do with a personality problem. Usually, people who become addicts are the pleasure-seeking type, or else they have psychoneurotic personalities. It is extremely rare to find an addict who is an emotionally normal, mature person.

It is a strange fact about addiction that persons who learn about drugs and begin their use through associating with addicts are much more likely to become addicts themselves than are persons who receive the drugs from a doctor to relieve pain. Addiction is something like a contagious disease, usually spreading from person to person.

Another Danger

There is another danger, too—the use of one drug commonly leads to others. Thus, most marijuana addicts eventually become addicted to morphine or heroin.

Some types of drugs, when first used, create a feeling of ease and comfort in the individual. They have the effect of reducing emotional tension, as the nerves are falsely rested. Worries vanish, and the individual taking the drug can dream and put off the time of decision until tomorrow.

Many addicts have a feeling that drugs increase their efficiency. Actually, addicting drugs decrease mental efficiency and do not increase courage or physical prowess.

What happens when morphine is suddenly withdrawn from the addict? Eight to fourteen hours after his last dose of morphine he becomes restless and tosses in his sleep. Then his eyes begin to water, his nose "runs," he perspires and yawns excessively. Goose pimples appear, and the pupils of the eyes dilate. His breathing is heavy, and his blood sugar is lowered. The person becomes increasingly restless and, in some cases, the arms, legs, and feet twitch almost constantly. He has severe muscle cramps, backache, and generalized aches throughout the body.

These severe symptoms eventually pass off, but not before five to seven days after the last dose of morphine. Withdrawal of barbiturates brings somewhat similar symptoms, and in serious cases may endanger life even more than morphine.

Cause Demoralization

Morphine and other addicting drugs can cause a complete mental and physical demoralization. Their effects are so serious that treatment is rarely successful unless it is under the direction of specialists in a hospital. The Federal Government supports two such hospitals which specialize in curing addiction, one at Lexington, Kentucky, and the other at Ft. Worth, Texas.

Modern treatment avoids the severe symptoms described above. It withdraws the addicting drug slowly by substituting less harmful drugs. The other important part of the program is mental and psychiatric treatment for the personality difficulty which is at the bottom of the drug habit.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

E. M.: Will any special diet help mental illness?

Answer: There is no definite evidence that diet will have any special effect on a mental disorder.

Red Air Raiders Are Led by Woman

TOKYO, Jan. 3.—A "woman pilot hero" led the Communist air raid on Inchon Harbor Tuesday, the Pyongyang radio reports.

The North Korean high command said Red bombers attacked Inchon and Kimpo Air Base, destroying 24 UN aircraft in the Kimpo raid.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force said only three obsolete bi-planes dropped explosives in the vicinity of Kimpo and Inchon without causing any damage.

The Red radio broadcast a dispatch from a Communist correspondent saying "woman pilot hero Tae Son Hi" led the Red bombers which "dropped every bomb over the enemy marshalling yard on the Inchon Harbor. All bombs got their targets."

"IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD"

Facts for Leap Year Maidens

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK—P—So it's leap year, lady, and you want to get that guy?

Well, if you want to be successful, quit trying to follow the usual advice to the lovelorn, and face the real facts of life.

The main fact is that the odds are against you—and the odds are getting worse. Ten years ago there were 100 men for every 100 women in the United States. But the last census showed there are only 96.6 men over 21 for every 100 women in the same age bracket.

There just aren't enough guys to go around. Most of the 100 women try to marry one of those 96 men. Why don't you aim at the leftover—the .6 per cent fellow. Don't forget that if you can't get a whole man a male fraction is better than none.

The professional advice-givers usually tell a girl to be sensible and "marry a dependable, healthy man with a steady job and a good sense of humor." That is like telling you to marry the man in the moon.

Think of all the men you know who are dependable, healthy, have steady jobs and a good sense of humor. Don't they already wear some other gal's brand? As a young lady told me mournfully:

"I know a lot of good men I'd like to marry—but their wives won't let me."

So, if you really want to get wed this year, start culling over the junk heap of masculinity that is left. Remember, a good jalopy can be built from the metal scraps found in the average city dump.

Your best bet isn't to search for the perfect husband. It's to salvage and recondition some battered Joe your girl friends have passed over in the mad scramble. To take some masculine nightmare and remold him into your dream man—that is your challenge, lady.

A few tips on how to do it: Look for a man with circles under his eyes. Now, here is obviously a fellow who needs a good long rest. All you have to do is convince him that if he marries you he will get it.

Men with ulcers are always good possibilities. But if you have an ulcer, too, don't let him know about it until after you've pushed him to the altar. Tell him you're flat-footed or got indoor eczema—and he won't mind. But all bachelors are instinctively wary of wedding women with the same ailments as they have. They don't want to share it with anybody.

Single men with melancholy dispositions are first-rate prospects. Marriage is a serious proposition, and nothing is so trying to a wife as a mate who brags about his sense of humor. What gives a husband the right to think he's got anything to laugh about anyway?

Don't worry if the man you're after doesn't seem able to hold a steady job. Six months after you land him, he'll be glad to get up every morning and go to work—anything to get out of the house.

The main thing is—don't look for a man you want to marry because of his virtues. Marry a man for his defects and then iron them out. It is much easier to correct a defect than to preserve a virtue.

Two final warnings: Don't marry a man who wears bow ties and a crew haircut. He'll never grow up.

And don't marry an obnoxious player. You'll never hear the last of him.

Law of the Air over Hungary

By George Sokolsky

The questions raised by Hungary's random demand on American military fliers are:

1. Is the United States engaged in war with Hungary? If so, do the laws of war apply?

2. If the United States is not at war with Hungary, is that country a neutral in a war in which the United States is involved?

3. If Hungary is a neutral, what is the nature of the war and who are the belligerents?

4. Under which laws of nations were these fliers seized?

Since 1919, a vast body of international law and precedent has been established governing belligerent, neutral and civil aviation. According to the convention of October 13, 1919, signed at Paris, it was agreed:

"The high contracting parties recognize that every power has complete and exclusive sovereignty over the air space above its territory.

"For the purpose of the present convention the territory of a state shall be understood as including the national territory, both that of the mother country and of the colonies, and the territorial waters adjacent thereto." The Havana convention of February 20, 1928, to which the United States was a party, stipulated:

"The high contracting parties recognize that every state has complete and exclusive sovereignty over the air space above its territory and territorial waters."

Congress, on May 20, 1926, passed the air commerce act which laid down American fundamental law on the subject:

"The Congress hereby declares that the government of the United States has, to the exclusion of all foreign nations, complete sovereignty of the air-space over the lands and waters of the United States, including the canal zone. Aircraft a part of the armed forces of any foreign nation shall not be navigated in the United States. Including the canal zone, except in accordance with an authorization granted by the secretary of state."

In the Havana convention the contracting parties agreed: "To disarm and intern every rebel force crossing their boundaries, the expenses of internment to be borne by the state where public order may have been disturbed. The arms found in the hands of the rebels may be seized and withdrawn by the government of the country granting asylum, to be returned, once the struggle has ended, to the state in civil strife."

This principle is important in our difficulties with Hungary (although this document does not apply) because these fliers are not rebels against any country, nor can they be called spies. They simply lost their way and carried conventional equipment. Were they rebels or spies, against whom were they rebelling and on whom were they spying? If they were en route to Belgrade, and got lost, they could not have been spying on Hungary. This is a question of fact. Furthermore, are we at war with Hungary that they are alert for American spies? If so, when did Congress, according to our constitution, declare war on Hungary?

The 1919 convention, amended in 1929, required "freedom of innocent passage." If fliers are lost, is it "innocent passage"?

In World War I, when the military airplane was introduced, it raised a new problem, namely, the ownership of the air. Neutral countries, such as the Netherlands, were concerned about planes flying over their territory. It was generally held that "belligerent aircraft had no right to enter neutral jurisdiction. . . . Disabled belligerent aircraft, aircraft trying to escape from the enemy, aircraft lost in fog or storm, were with their personnel forced to land and interned by neutral states. . . ."

When belligerent aircraft passed over neutral territory without intending to land, they were fired at for the purpose of compelling them to do so."

Is the belligerency of this flight asserted? And if the plane were that of a belligerent, is Hungary a neutral, and what is the war? The Havana convention of 1928 and the Panama treaty of 1939 govern this question of the relations of belligerents and neutrals with regard to aircraft, but if we think of these fliers and their plane in these terms, then World War III has commenced and Hungary is our enemy. This magnifies the problem greatly, but no other conclusion can be reached in terms of international law.

On April 18, 1942, an American military plane landed near Khabarovsk, in Siberia, in the territory of Soviet Russia. That country was then in the paradoxical position of being our ally in the European war but a neutral in our war with Japan. Soviet Russia interned the American fliers and their plane as belligerents in war flying into neutral territory.

In a word, the Soviet countries know no law and recognize none. Copyright 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Mrs. C. L. Lewellen, president, opened the business session at 11:15 A. M., by reading the hymn, "Happy The Home Where God Is," during which Mrs. B. E. Kelley softly played the musical accompaniment and after a moment of silent prayer she led the group in the praying of the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Jess Feagans gave the secretary's report and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Webster French.

Reports were given by circle leaders and Mrs. Henry Brownell gave a most gratifying report as supply secretary.

Mrs. Arch O. Riber gave an account of the Navajo Methodist Mission School, located at Farmington, New Mexico, which is the mission receiving gifts from several circles at Christmas.

Mrs. Lewellen closed the morning session by reading the hymn, "Another Year Is Dawning."

Circle 5, with Mrs. John Stark, leader, were hostesses for the delicious luncheon and a most pleasant hour in Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Ed Fite, program leader for the afternoon, used as her theme, "The Churches, Our Country's Need," which was accentuated by a beautiful brightly lighted replica of a church near the altar.

Mrs. B. E. Kelley presented the opening piano prelude and Mrs. D. H. Rowe led in the devotions, which included an article, "Threshold of Another Year." Scripture reading from the 37th Psalm, a poem, "The New Leaf," and prayer. The call to worship was taken.

Lost 22 Lbs. Rennel Is Wonderful

Viola Lucas, 1945 E. 66th St., Cleveland, Ohio writes: "I was really amazed at the way Rennel Concentrate takes off bulky fat. I have lost 22 lbs. in three weeks, and feel like a new person. Rennel gave me wonderful results."

Imagine, eat plenty and lose weight with this safe, effective home recipe. Obtain liquid Rennel at your drug store, mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic with the very first bottle, just return it to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Rennel. Insist on genuine Rennel.

Fortunately, when orange, grapefruit, and tomato juice are canned, almost all of their vitamin C is protected. We need to have adequate amounts of vitamin C (ascorbic acid) daily since our bodies do not store it.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 — (P)—In the old days if the Philadelphia shoemakers went on strike, no one suffered much except the shoe-makers and their employers. New shoes weren't a necessity.

In those late 18th century days a strike in one city might affect that city, but that one only, because the American society was a lot more simple then.

The various parts weren't interdependent. Unions were few and small. No industry was vital to the whole country. It's different today when the whole structure of American life is built on interdependence, with unions nationwide and some industries extremely vital.

Today a long coal steel or railroad strike could ruin the defense program and in normal times it could wreck the economy. A prolonged railroad strike, for instance, is unthinkable.

IMAGINE THE effect of a month-long train and truck strike, shutting off food and other supplies from all the cities. There'd be riots certainly. Probably there'd be revolution. No government could permit it.

Congress certainly is aware of this growing interdependency of all the American parts, as it has demonstrated in legislation aimed at avoiding strikes.

The Railway Labor Act provides long machinery for settling disputes between the rail unions and the companies, with the underlying idea that the longer they talk the better the chance of a settlement.

And the Taft-Hartley Act lets the President get a court injunction forbidding a strike for 80 days, again giving both sides more time for a settlement.

But in no case has Congress flatly forbidden a strike. When the 80-day T-H injunction ends a union is free to strike. And a rail union can strike when all the railway labor act machinery is exhausted.

In stopping just short of flatly forbidding a strike? Congress has been guided by the underlying principle of as much freedom as possible for everyone, including unions and employers.

So, by stopping short of a ban on strikes in vital industries, Congress has tried to let unions and employers reach agreements through free, collective bargaining.

BUT IT GETS less and less free, the more the government steps in the present steel dispute. When negotiations between the steelworkers' union and the companies

Post Office Receipts Are Up $10,943

Drop During This Year Would Not Be Surprising

Postal receipts at the Washington C. H. Post Office during 1951 exceeded those of 1950 by $10,943.51, Postmaster W. E. Passmore said Thursday.

Total receipts for the year reached $126,066.58, while in 1950 the receipts were $115,123.07.

As an indication of the tremendous growth of the office here in recent years, Postmaster Passmore points to the receipts in 1934 which totaled $34,228.89.

In other words, receipts have increased $92,000 in a period of 17 years, which is regarded as an extraordinary growth in the post office business here.

Postmaster Passmore is pessimistic regarding receipts in 1952. In fact he is not expecting total receipts to be as great as they were last year.

He bases his belief on the change in parcel post regulations, which limits to 40 pounds all packages for the first and second zones, all parcels in other zones to 20 pounds.

Heretofore, 70 pounds has been the limit, with a measurement of 100 inches in length and girth limitations.

The increase in postal cards from one to two cents is not expected to boost receipts materially. In fact, the number of cards sold at 2 cents is expected to show a big decrease under sales of the one-cent cards.

Other increases which became effective January 1 are not expected to swell the total income to any pronounced extent, it is indicated.

broke down, the union threatened a strike.

Such a strike now would wreck the defense program. Instead of using T-H's 80-day delay, President Truman stepped in and asked both sides to let the government's Wage Stabilization Board examine the dispute and make a recommendation on a fair settlement. Both sides agreed. The union put off the strike.

This is the latest example of where the government couldn't afford to let free, collective bargaining go all the way—that is, end in a strike—in a vital industry.

The U. S. Army is resuming its formal training of dogs for military use for the first time since World War II.

New Plymouth To Be Shown By Dealers

The new 1952 Plymouth will go on display here and throughout the United States on Friday and Saturday at the local Plymouth dealers, Universal Auto, J. Elmer White's and Roads Motor Sales Inc.

A long list of improvements—46 in all—have been incorporated in the engine, brakes, electrical system, chassis and the interior and exterior of the body.

The new car, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth, has been improved and refined to provide "the most gentle ride, the smoothest engine performance and the greatest safety ever built into a car for the lowest price field."

Engine smoothness is produced through a newly designed combustion chamber; brakes are stronger and longer-lasting; Plymouth's famous Safety-Flow ride has been made even more comfortable by improvements in the springing and to the Oriflow shock absorbers; and the car's beauty is enhanced by numerous styling refinements.

The Plymouth has a road-hugging, sweeping appearance, accentuated by changes in the external adornment. A new luxurious standard for interiors is attained with the high quality upholstery fabrics in harmonious colors, which blend beautifully with the instrument and door panels.

Staunton Pupils To Stage Yule Play on Friday

"Magic Christmas Bells," a play which was to have been presented before Christmas, will be offered by youngsters of the Staunton School at 7:30 P. M. Friday at the school house.

The play was postponed by inclement weather until after the Christmas and New Year's Eve holiday, but since so much work went into the project, the pupils and teachers have decided to go ahead with it.

The play is about Santa Claus going to sleep and hearing people at work in his workshop getting toys ready for the Yuletide. When Santa arises, he finds the presents are ready to be delivered.

The general public has been in-

Short Course for Farmers Resumed

Lester Geiger, vocational agriculture instructor at Jeffersonville High School, announced today that the farmers' short course will be resumed at 7:30 P. M. next Monday at the high school.

Geiger will use as his subject Monday: "What Can We Find by Soil Test." He said inclement weather and the holidays had postponed the short course from Dec. 14. About six or seven more sessions have been planned, he explained.

The sessions are held at the high school. There are 16 farmers enrolled in the course.

The director of the play is Mrs. Helen Huff, music teacher.

Brown Called To Coach Pro Bowl Game Team

MOBILE, Jan. 3.—(P)—Another round in the Steve Owen vs. Paul Brown coaching rivalry won't come off here Saturday in the Senior Bowl as scheduled. But a strange case of football coaching by remote control is in the offing.

Brown, coach of the professional Cleveland Browns, learned Wednesday night he was being paged loudly in Los Angeles to come out and coach one of the all-star teams in the Professional Bowl game Jan. 12.

Since his contract plainly said he had to go, Brown went. His leave taking was highly painful to the North squad of the Senior Bowl cast, to sponsors of the Senior Bowl and the fans who expected to see a typical Brown-Owen scrap.

Owen, a 250-pounder, is coach of the professional New York Giants in the fall and coach of the South squad every January in the Senior Bowl.

During the last two seasons, Brown's Clevelanders and Owen's New Yorkers have had the fiercest series in professional football. Their teams have taken turns

Blackwell Signs With Reds Again

CINCINNATI, Jan. 3.—(P)—One Cincinnati Reds baseball player is all set for the coming season, while another is getting ready for surgery.

The ball club announced Wednesday that pitcher Ewell Blackwell has signed his 1952 contract. Blackwell had only a 16-15 record last season. His salary was undisclosed, but he reportedly has been getting $25,000 a year.

The other Redleg, Outfielder Joe Adcock, will come to Cincinnati Friday for an operation on an ankle.

Pro Golf Campaign Opens in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—(P)—The 1952 professional golf campaign will be launched here Friday when about 250 players tee off in the first round of the $17,500 Los Angeles Open Tournament.

Flying Parson Awarded Prize

Midnight Training Is Done in Park

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 3.—(P)—The Rev. Robert Richards, whose amazing pole-vaulting and decathlon performances earned him the 1951 James E. Sullivan Memorial Trophy, raked a sweaty forehead with the back of his hand.

The Flying Parson had just pulled up in the darkness after a tour around a city park here. Time was 1 A. M., Thursday.

"Well," said Richards, the amateur athlete of 1951, "I guess that's enough for tonight. I've worked out in this little park for almost two hours now. After a shower, I'll go to bed."

That's the way Richards, second pole vaulter in history to clear 15 feet and the national decathlon champion, keeps in trim for his great performances. That's the way he's getting ready for the coming Olympic trials.

"I HAVE to train much of the time at night," said the 25-year-old parson, who last Sunday scored his 50th straight pole-vaulting victory in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

"I usually teach in the morning, have business affairs to take care of in the afternoon, preach at night and then comes my training."

Richards, who said winning the Sullivan trophy Wednesday was "probably the greatest honor of my life," is concentrating on his Olympic preparation.

"I'm training with all my heart and soul for that Olympic team," the stocky Richards said. "I hope to be in top shape. And I've got my heart set on breaking the world's pole-vaulting and decathlon records. With the help of God, I will."

The pole-vaulting record Richards is shooting at is the 15 foot, 8 1/2 inch mark set by Cornelius Warmerdam. The parson, who cleared 15 feet nine times last year, has achieved a height of 15 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

A comparative newcomer to the decathlon competition, Richards wants to better the world record tally of 8,042 points rolled up by Olympic Champion Bob Mathias. He collected 7,834 points in the 10-event test last year.

Richards, here on a visit and conducting revivals at nearby towns, is an instructor in religious philosophy at La Verne (Calif.) college.

Richards amassed 1,283 points in the final balloting for the Sullivan trophy. He was the first choice of 174 of the 487 ballots cast by a nationwide panel of sports authorities. Second went to Maureen Connolly, 17-year-old national tennis champion from San Diego, Calif., with 903 points. Sergeant Mai Whitfield of the Army Air Force, 1948 Olympic 80-meter champion and three-time national champion at the distance, was third with 754

Notre Dame Upset By Spartan Cagers

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—(P)—The opening of the Big Ten basketball season Saturday appeared assured one of its strongest fields in recent years when Michigan State overpowered Notre Dame Wednesday night.

The 66-52 verdict was the first defeat for the Irish at home in 21 games and was only their second loss this season.

Playing at home Notre Dame was favored to knock Michigan State out of the unbeaten ranks. But the Spartans, chalking up their seventh in a row, led at the half, 31-29, then put on a second half drive that killed all chance for the Irish.

Michigan State thus heads into the title chase with a perfect record. Identical records are held by Indiana, Iowa and Illinois.

All Big Ten teams swing into conference competition Saturday night in a card which has Illinois at Minnesota, Michigan at Indiana, Iowa at Michigan State, Ohio State at Northwestern and Purdue at Wisconsin.

Michigan State, though winning all six previous games against non-conference opponents, had not looked as impressive as it did last night in conquering Notre Dame, which had lost only to Indiana.

Can't Take Country Out of Boy--Even Basketball Player

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Jan. 3.—(P)—Seven-foot Billy (Toar) Hester, who had the greatest advance buildup ever given a basketball player in the Southwest Conference, has quit the University of Arkansas.

His coach, Presley Askew, said Wednesday night the center with drew from college because he had an "intense dislike" for school, lost his enthusiasm for the game and longed for his old farm life in Louisiana.

When Hester graduated from high school in Hall Summit, La., in 1949, and Arkansas beat scores of colleges in the race for his services, he was pictured as a sure-fire All-America, a meal ticket that would rocket the Razorbacks to national cage fame.

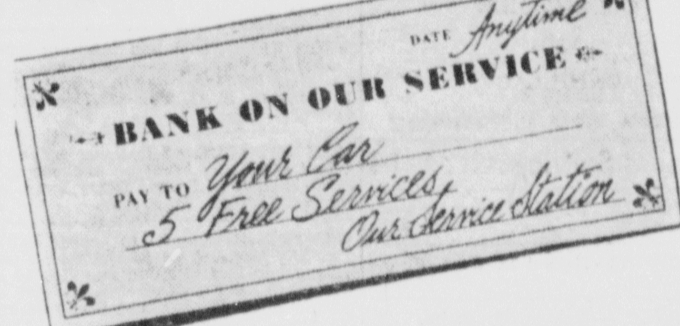

Hester's wife, who is employed in the university bookstore, said Toar had an offer of a job in Shreveport, La., but might join his father and grandfather in farming operations near Hall Summit.

'Greatest Leftlander'

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 3.—(P)—A veteran baseball observer says William (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, a St. Louis Cardinal acquisition, may become "the greatest leftlander the game ever had."

Johnny Keane, a long-time member of the Cardinal organization, called Mizell a faster pitcher today than Dizzy Dean or Wild Bill Hallahan were in their prime.

Buy on these Plain Hard Facts

See for yourself how a Chevrolet truck can cut your costs in every way

as they come!

Fact No. 1

Costs Less to Buy

List prices of Chevrolet trucks are lower than comparable models of other makes. As the world's largest manufacturer of trucks, Chevrolet takes advantage of production economies to pass substantial savings on to you! Your capital outlay is lower when you buy rugged Chevrolet trucks.

Saves Money on the Job

Chevrolet trucks save money over the miles with proved features that cut operating and maintenance costs! Valve-in-Head economy, 4-Way Lubrication, rugged Hypoid rear-axes, channel-type frames, Ball-Gear Steering, Synchro-Mesh Transmission and others.

Right Truck for Every Load

Your first interest in a truck is: "How well will it do the job?" That's where Chevrolet trucks have it, because they're factory-matched to the payload—tires, axles, chassis, springs, engine, transmission, brakes. You get as much truck as your job calls for.

Keeps Its Value Longer

It's a fact. Chevrolet trucks keep their value longer to bring you traditionally higher value. That means two things to you. It represents real, substantial dollar-and-cents savings at trade-in time. And it puts a clincher on the extra value and ruggedness built into every Chevrolet truck.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

March of Dimes Drive Swings Into High Gear

Organization Set Up by Chairman; Collections Start

The organization which will handle the annual March of Dimes solicitation in Fayette County has been announced by William Lovell, chairman of the drive here.

A unique feature has been added to the annual campaign—the opportunity for residents here to contribute money to the drive through parking meters in the downtown area of Washington C. H.

Crossed crutches will again be placed on sidewalks in the city. Miniature iron lungs have been spotted in business places in the downtown area of the city.

SCHOOLS ARE cooperating by distributing coin cards to youngsters in the schools.

There will be an added feature to the drive this year, but details of it are not sufficiently completed to make an announcement at this time.

Rev. Francis T. McCarty, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has been named as the chairman of the special gifts committee. His assistants include the following: Mrs. Robert West, Miss Jean West, Mrs. Cline Deere, Miss Elizabeth Horney, Mrs. Jane Coffman and Miss Irene Stauffer.

Tom Mark was responsible for getting the miniature iron lungs distributed in downtown business places.

Supt. Stephen Brown of the city schools and Supt. W. J. Hilty and Jean Everhart of the county schools, will see to it that coin cards are distributed throughout the schools.

Mrs. Frank Mayo and Mrs. Wayne Bower are in charge of the women's organizations which will help with the annual drive. Edmond Woodmansee has charge of the men's organizations.

WORKING IN THE collection of dimes from the parking meters are Owen Lowe, meter man, and Miss Marie Melvin, city auditor.

Floyd Tracy helped make some signs for the drive.

Mrs. Charles Hurt will head up the Mother's March of Dimes while Donald Gibson will be responsible for the restaurant solicitation.

Scouts of Troop 32 who put signs on parking meters in the city Wednesday and Thursday included David Whiteside, Jack Hatmacher and Donald Coulter.

J. Roush Burton, treasurer of the Fayette County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is again serving the chapter this year and will receive checks contributed to the campaign. He is located at the First National Bank here.

INCREASE DIVIDENDS

XENIA—Xenia's two savings and loan associations have announced annual dividend rates on savings accounts have been increased from 2 to 2½ percent.

Paint Creek today was again out of its banks, swollen by .43 inches of rain during Wednesday night.

Heavy precipitation and melting snow during the past few days have combined to send streams in the county out of their banks frequently.

Meanwhile, the mercury mounted as the sun broke through the overcast, but the weatherman predicted low temperatures again for Thursday night. Low of from 15 to 20 were forecast for Thursday night.

Friday, the forecast was for some cloudiness and slightly warmer.

4-H Advisors Council Meets

Jeannie Coil and John Melvin were nominated to represent the county in the selection of representatives to various national camps and the junior state fair board during a meeting of the 4-H Club Advisors Council held in the extension office Wednesday evening.

The group continued discussing ways to further improve the 1952 program, including a suggestion that the number of 4-H Club members be increased.

Albert Cobb, associate county agent, reminded the members that the district advisor's council will hold their meeting at the Hotel Washington on Wednesday, Jan. 15. The meeting will include the advisors from Franklin, Ross, Pickaway, Madison, Clinton and Fayette counties.

Cobb also announced that a postage stamp commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of 4-H clubs would go on sale in Springfield on January 15 and in Washington C. H. a few days later. Springfield is the site of the first club.

If the two Fayette County 4-H Club representatives are elected to go on to the national camp in Washington D. C., sometime this year, they will also represent the area at the Founder's Camp in Shelby, Mich. and will be members of the state junior fair board.

The next regular meeting of the council will be held in the extension office on Tuesday evening, January 15.
